Next Meeting

Dec. 13th at the Park Office

Whoever said a horse was dumb, was dumb.

Horses can't talk, but they can speak if you listen.

Riding-the art of keeping a horse between you and the ground.

On Saturday, November 5th, a small group of Rangers met at the Park in answer to a request by Dan Rodgers for help with the trails. The snowfall in the preceding days downed a lot of branches and trees, and required a lot of work to be done. A big thank you for those members who were able to help, they did a wonderful job!

Meeting Minutes

November 8, 2011

Meeting called to order 7:35.

Secretary's Report-Minutes of the last meeting were read.

No Treasury Report.

The club voted to leave the portable toilet at the horse trailer parking lot in place until the end of December.

Banquet Committee: The banquet will be held at the Elks in Hanover on March 10, 2012. It was voted on and approved that members will attend for free, and non-members will pay a $20.00 charge.

Naming and placing signs on the trails has been put on hold until we get clarification from the park on what is permitted and not permitted.

Brad Bealing from the park attended the meeting to personally thank those members who helped with this year's Halloween in the Park.

50/50, two winners each received $13.50.

There is a ride scheduled on November 27th at The league of Maryland Horsemen, weather permitting. Jayne Sample will be the contact person.

It was decided that ballots can be destroyed after the Officer and Board elections are held.
